Breathtaking beachfront villas and pool on Koh Phangan

Awe Resort offers two-floor villas on a private beach with seaside infinity pool. From here you have easy access to big parties as well as amazing tropical forests. Located in Baan Tai, on the sunset side of the island, with a great view over to Koh Samui.

The villas incorporate a contemporary design with open air living, a large garden and pool areas. Villas at Awe Resort are a good alternative to typically stuffy budget bungalows.

The spacious living and dining areas blend naturally into the lush tropical gardens. A perfect place for intimate dinners or entertaining friends, all villas come with food service catered to your doorstep.

Perfect for singles, couples, families or a group of friends. The spacious villas have all the features of a good hotel plus the added luxury of a private beach, seaside pool, garden and a staff that is standing by for all of your needs.

The Suites all feature separate living rooms and open air bathrooms with very unique wooden bath tubs. They are luxuriously equipped with an elegant bedroom and tastefully designed with spacious private balconies facing the ocean.
