Sunset Cove is located on the west coast of Koh Phangan directly on one of the islands top beaches Ao Chao Phao beach. A kilometer long white fine sand beach stretch, wide enough for all kinds of sporting activities flanked by tropical forests, lush gardens and palm tree coves.

The resort has been built using all natural materials and has been thoughtfully designed to blend in closely with the natural surroundings while offering the highest standards in comfort. The bungalows are spacious and tastefully decorated with polished wooden floors and western facilities. They are equipped with with air-con, a television with DVD player and mini-bar. They are either set in the middle of beautifully landscaped tropical gardens or next to the swimming pool overlooking the Ocean.

The Suites all feature separate living rooms and open air bathrooms with very unique wooden bath tubs. They are luxuriously equipped with an elegant bedroom and tastefully designed with spacious private balconies facing the ocean.

The "Sunset Terrace Restaurant" is located right on the beach and serves a variety of foods from traditional Thai to international specialties. The ambiance here is very chilled out and relaxed with plenty of cushions and chill out areas on wooden decks spread throughout the restaurant.

During the day relax by the Pool featuring panoramic views of the beach. You can swim a few laps in the 20 meter long pool or simply relax and catch some rays while enjoying a cold drink or a snack by the Poolside bar.
